

Honors Program Committee Action Item

One item of business was considered electronically. All members of the committee participated and voted unanimously to approve the motion.

The committee considered a proposal from an Honors Scholar to count URES 197 as a course that fulfills the Honors Research Methods course requirement. The proposal was sent back to the student on November 13th for revision. A revised proposal was received on November 20th and this revised proposal was approved unanimously by the committee.