WHERE: University Center, Chandler Ballroom

Do you have a great chili recipe or delicious cornbread you think everyone needs to try? Do you want to try winning one of the 3 prizes for having the best chili or cornbread? Sign up HERE to bring your best recipes and compete in the chili cook-off!

If you don't want to compete and you just like sampling chili, come to hang out and taste with the SAC members and your colleagues! The chili goes fast so make sure you come early!

Mark your calendars and bring your taste buds!

UMW RecycleMania and Shred Event 2017

UMW Landscape and Grounds is hosting the UMW RecycleMania Shred Event again this year. Confidential documents for shredding will be collected on February 28, 2017. Please visit the UMW Sustainability website for the pick-up schedule and details.

The Shred Event is part of UMW's participation in RecycleMania - an annual eight-week tournament during which colleges and universities across the country compete to reduce, reuse, and recycle on-campus waste. This year, over 300 schools, including 4.5 million students and 1.1 million faculty and staff from 48 states, DC, and Canada are competing! This is UMW's 9th year participating in this event. Last year UMW ranked 47 out of 269 schools!

A Facilities Services Work Request must be submitted by February 25, 2017 by 4:00pm. The Work Request must include:

- Material amounts (estimated # of boxes or bags)
- Location and name of person on site to verify the correct materials
- RM-3 Records Destruction form (voided copy) must be taped to materials.

If you have any questions, contact Joni Wilson at Sustainability@umw.edu

SAC February 2017 Meeting

Guest Speaker: Dr. Bill Crawley, Director of Great Lives & Distinguished Professor Emeritus of History

Dr. Crawley spoke at the SAC meeting about the Great Lives program. The program started in the 1970s as a biographical class within the History department and, from there, grew into what it is today, an event for the community. Throughout the years the Great Lives program has remained free to the public and bring large crowds to each lecture. The success of this lecture series is due, in part, to support from donors and local corporations who want to make sure the series keeps running. Lectures that have already happened this spring include Woodrow Wilson, Frank Sinatra, Hamilton and Burr, Nat Turner, John Wayne, Ty Cobb, Douglas MacArthur, and Harriet Tubman. There are still many great biographical lectures to come including George Custer, George Lucas, Mark Twain, and others. For a full list of the upcoming lectures, click here.
