

TENTATIVE AGENDA FOR 2017-2018
UNIVERSITY FACULTY AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

New business (tentative):

- Setting policy on acceptable student recordings of class materials (referred by UFC)
- Deciding whether to revisit the student course evaluation instrument (suggested by N. Mikhalevsky)
- Standardizing and improving faculty evaluation, especially teaching evaluation beyond the student course evaluation (suggested by N. Mikhalevsky)
- Examining faculty workload other than teaching (suggested by N. Mikhalevsky as follow up to the Workload Committee's focus on teaching)
- Making recommendations on junior faculty service, including service on assessment (suggested by N. Mikhalevsky)
- Clarifying policies on unpaid leaves of absence (suggested by A. Rao)

Old business:

- Making cost-neutral improvements to adjunct welfare (currently in progress)
- Improving rate of return for student course evaluations (referred to D. Schleef)
- Seeking to reduce minority faculty service overload (currently with Diversity Task Force)
- Aiding Campus Rec's attempt to strengthen services to faculty (currently with Campus Rec)
- Working to remediate salary compression (currently with Advisory Committee on Salary Adjustment)
- Enabling online P&T review (currently with UFC; may come back to our agenda at some point)
