

Minutes of the Honors Program Committee
Friday February 1, 2013 – 1 pm – DuPont 210 – Addendum/Correction of the Previous Minutes

See minutes of February 1, 2013 for full details.

After the meeting, Kelli Slunt consulted with the Registrar and the Gary Richards, chair of the Department of English, Linguistics, and Communication.

Colin Rafferty would like the opportunity to teach his approved FSEM100 course as either a non-honors first-year seminar or an Honors First-year seminar. Therefore, the minutes of the February 1st meeting should be changed to reflect this.

Course Proposals for HONR100 Courses – Motion to designate the following courses to fulfill the HONR 100 First-Year Seminar Requirement

- a. FSEM100H2 - The Idea of Cool – Colin Rafferty as instructor
Action: Approved to be designated as an HN course –Effective Fall 2013 – Course can be offered as FSEM100H2 (HN)
- b. HONR100 – Shakespeare and Popular Culture – Maya Mathur as instructor
Action: Approved –Effective Fall 2013 - Course Number will be HONR100J – NOTE CHANGE IN COURSE NUMBER FROM THE PRIOR MINUTES. This course was previously approved as FSEM100H7 but is now permanently changed to HONR100J.

For any course that is converted to an HONR100 course, the corresponding FSEM100 course is deleted from the course offerings.

Respectfully Submitted,

Kelli Slunt

Director of Honors Program
