

Discussion item: "Day on Democracy"

The UAAC generally supports the student proposal for a "Day on Democracy". It recognizes two main items for consideration given strong support for cancellation of classes on that day: how instructional time could be made up, and how advanced registration would be impacted. The committee recommends that conversations related to the academic calendar be continued, with input from additional sources.