

FSEM Committee Meeting Notes

15 November 2019

Jepson, Room 341

Members Present: April Wynn (Chair), Robert Rycroft, Debra Hydorn, Jeb Collins, Cate Brewer and Dan Hubbard (Secretary)

Chair Wynn called the meeting to order at 14h01.

Following a brief review of the committee's desired teaching and advising backgrounds, various proposals were discussed, and the following actions were taken:

Approval of Additional Instructors:

1. Sarah Dewees for the FSEM entitled "Communities of Engagement at Mary Washington"
2. Alan Griffith for the FSEM entitled "Science and Technology: Because We Can Should We?"
3. Jeb Collins for the FSEM entitled "Cryptology" (with minor revisions)
4. Brad Lamphere for the FSEM entitled "Parasites: Monsters Within" (with minor revisions)

Approval (electronic on Oct. 28, 2019) was voted for Teresa Coffman to modify the name of the FSEM entitled "So You Want to be a Teacher" to "Learning with Inquiry: Exploration, Experimentation, and Play"

Approval was voted for David Rettinger to modify the FSEM entitled "Passion to Action" to an FSEM entitled "Passion to Action: Nepal"

Approval for new FSEM Proposals:

1. Antonia Delgado-Poust for "The Ghosts and Monsters of Spain's 'Forgotten Past'" (with minor revision)
2. Andrew Dolby for "Too Hot to Handle" (with a recommendation for a name change to avoid confusion)
3. Wes Hillyard for "The Amusement Park: Yesterday's Pastime, Today's Thrill"
4. Michael Stebar for "The Mighty Maggot"
5. Will MacKintosh for "History That Didn't Happen" (with minor revision)

6. Jason Sellers for “History of Fredericksburg” (with minor revision)
7. Cate Brewer for “That’s What She Said: Exploring Contemporary Female Playwrights and Their Plays” (with minor revision)

Request for Revision and Resubmission:

Cartland Berge’s proposal for an FSEM entitled “We Create Worlds: Worldbuilding and Interactive Fiction”

Return of submission for clarification of departmental approval:

Sean Humphrey’s proposal for an FSEM entitled “Designing the Life of a Changemaker” (Department approval on 11.25.19)

A motion to adjourn having been unanimously approved, Chair Wynn closed the meeting at 14h59.

Respectfully submitted,

Dan Hubbard