

Motion passed by the UFC — August 16, 2021

The UFC supports faculty concerned about teaching in person during our fast changing coronavirus situation. We support faculty with vulnerable family members or special concerns for themselves to be accommodated in teaching on-line fall 2021, including the ability to switch to majority on-line instruction at any point in the semester according to an expedited process.