

Distance and Blended Learning Committee
Action Items for April 2022

The committee ended proposal reviews in January and decided any proposals submitted for the remainder of the academic year would follow the process for temporary approval (chair review only). The following courses have received temporary approval:

I. Temporary approval for summer 2022
EDSE 533 (Carter; submitted by J. Davis)

II. Temporary approval for fall 2022
PSYC 273 (Rettinger)
PSYC 413 (Rettinger)

The following courses received full approval, beginning summer 2022:

III. Mini-Courses Approved for Continuing and Professional Studies (CPS)
The committee's policy is that CPS mini courses come with "all instructor" approval if the submitter confirms that all instructors who will teach the course have taught online and/or received training for teaching online. The courses below have received such approval. The name in parentheses is the instructor included with the initial proposal.

EDUC 08TMC (Peck/All Instructors)
EDUC 04FMC (Peck/All Instructors)
